

Advance Care Planning

Topics for discussion

- What was the most difficult part of completing your own AD? (Or, if you haven't done one yet, can you identify the obstacles to doing so?)
- What strategies did you employ to overcome these obstacles?
- If you were able to have a conversation with another person about their advance directives, how did that go? Was it different from your own process?
- What did you learn in this process?