Dear Prospective Certified End-of-Life Doula,

Thank you for pursuing certification as a End-of-Life Doula with Lifespan Doulas. Below are instructions for completing your certification. Once you have completed all requirements, paid in full for your training, and submitted your completed packet, you will be mailed a copy of your certificate within two weeks.

Your certification has no expiration date. It is a lifetime certification.

We are here to support you in this process. If you have any questions, please contact me. Thank you for your service in support of families during the childbearing year.

Patty Brennan
